School Cross-Country (Competitors Only)

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The School Cross-Country is the next major event on our sporting calendar and will occur on Wednesday 11th April.

Age champions and runners-up will be awarded trophies and medals. All participants will receive points for their house.

Our Representative Cross-Country team will be selected from the five highest-placed finishers in each age group. All competitors in the school carnival must be willing to participate at the representative level.

Whilst this event is for competitors only (no walkers or spectators), I encourage students to enter regardless of experience or past achievements.

Students not involved in this event will remain at school in normal classes.
